Parent Volunteer Information

Parents now have a Sign In Binder in the office to record their volunteer hours. If you do volunteer work at home (i.e. ironing, newsletter, etc.), please don't forget to record the hours in the office.

Teacher Appreciation Week is May 4-8th. We are planning to do a breakfast for the teachers on Monday, pending approval from Mr. Zipkes. Otherwise we will be doing a lunch on Friday. Emails will be sent to recruit food contributions and servers as soon as plans are confirmed.

There will be a Film Festival in May, but the date has not been selected yet. The Parent Involvement Committee will be having a concession stand to raise money for the school.

"Meet the Teacher Night" is tentatively scheduled for the Thursday before school starts with a Taco Plate fundraiser.

The Barnes and Noble Book Fair has been rescheduled to November with hopes that National Honor Society will co-sponsor. Pamela Bartee has volunteered to coordinate.

Student Volunteer Hours

If students have worked volunteer hours, they need to get a document signed by the adult sponsor of the event with the number of hours worked to the office. We are trying to get more information on how many per year, total number needed, etc. as there is some confusion. Students should contact Ms Perry for volunteer ideas and opportunities.
