

Pixie

WebBlender

Internet Explorer

Geometry Pictionary 4th Grade

Internet Explorer

1. Launch:
2. Navigate to the following website and take notes on various geometry terms:
<http://math.com/homeworkhelp/Geometry.html>

3. Launch

4. Use the  to create a title page: Geometry Pictionary (Add shapes to the title, if desired)

5. Click  to add a page.
New

6. Use the shape tool  and select a filled circle to draw a point.

7. Use the  to type the word point and a sentence which provides a definition.

8. Choose other words to illustrate and describe such as: line, line segment, intersecting line, ray, angle, and plane. Create additional pages for geometry terms such as parallel and perpendicular lines and right, acute, and obtuse angles. (See sample)

9. To draw a line use the  tool.

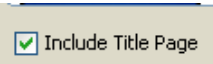

10. To draw a ray use the  tool.

11. To draw a line segment use the  tool.

12. Use the filled circle in the  area to add points to the lines, rays, and segments.

To add the degree symbol to a number: Hold the CTRL key and type 0176.

13. Add images from the Stickers window to display authentic examples of the geometry terms.

14. Click  and save each of the slides. When  launches, remove the checkmark next to Include Title Page .

15. Choose a blank white theme.

16.  and .